

THE LONDON SCHOOL
OF ECONOMICS AND
POLITICAL SCIENCE ■

Research impact: making a difference

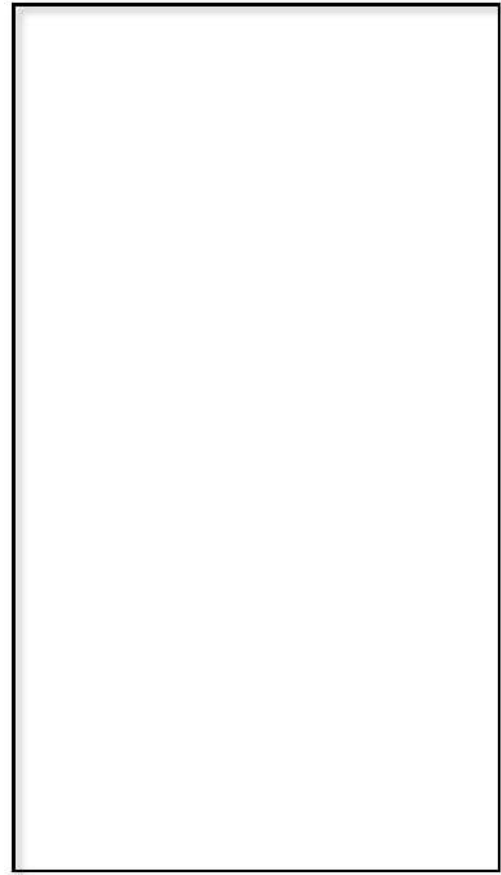

Respecting, protecting and promoting human rights beyond national borders

LSE's Margot Salomon was part of

Research impact: making a difference was responsible for establishing terminology and the theoretical basis for the Principles. In 2010, she was appointed to the Drafting Committee tasked with preparing the principles themselves.

After some considerable

THE LONDON SCHOOL
OF ECONOMICS AND
POLITICAL SCIENCE ■

Research impact: making a difference

socio-economic rights can be realised. As her research had shown, global structural impediments to the exercise of socio-economic rights must be addressed through the collective action of the international commun

THE LONDON SCHOOL
OF ECONOMICS AND
POLITICAL SCIENCE ■

Research impact: making a difference

Margot Salomon is A

