

Can you convey your research to a diverse audience with a three-minute film?

Communicating your area of research with concision and dynamism is an essential skill. Film is an excellent medium for this purpose. You will be asked to create a three-minute film that communicates your research to a diverse audience.

1. Write a script for your film. The script should be no longer than 3 minutes. It should clearly and concisely communicate your research to a diverse audience. (20 marks)
2. Record your film. You may use any equipment you like. Your film should be no longer than 3 minutes. It should clearly and concisely communicate your research to a diverse audience. (20 marks)
3. Submit your film. Your film should be submitted as a video file. It should be no longer than 3 minutes. It should clearly and concisely communicate your research to a diverse audience. (20 marks)

Submission information

Your film should be submitted to the following email address: research@biomed.ac.uk. The subject of the email should be 'Research Film Submission'. Please include your name and student ID in the email body.

- Maximum of three minutes long
- @biomed.ac.uk
- E.T. (Email Title)
- 9.X@biomed.ac.uk
-
