

LSE Taxation Seminars

Michaelmas, Lent and Summer Terms 2017-18

The LSE Taxation Seminars are held monthly on Monday evenings, in term time, from 6.30pm until 8.00pm. The seminars will be held in the New Academic Building, 54 Lincoln's Inn Fields, London WC2A 3LJ, except as otherwise noted. Subject to changes the Seminars will be in Room NAB.1.14 in the Michaelmas Term, Room NAB.2.06 in the Lent Term and the Moot Court Room for Summer Term. For more information see here:

Please bring a copy of this programme with you to show at the Reception desk. Refreshments will be available from 6.15 and during the regular seminars.

6 November 2017

“Taxing the New Economy – Labour Conditions and Performance in the New Economy”

Matthew Taylor (Royal Society of Arts, and Review of modern working practices)

Public Lecture: 20 November 2017 – NB: change of programme
6.30 to 8 p.m.

Sheikh Zayed Theatre, New Academic Building (Lower Ground)

“The Myth of Millionaire Tax Flight: how place still matters for the rich”

Speaker: Dr Cristobal Young (Stanford University)

Discussant: Dr Andrew Summers (LSE)

Chair: Professor Nicola Lacey (LSE)

Special Event: Thursday 30 November 2017
6.30 to 8.00 p.m.
Moot Court Room, New Academic Building (7th Floor)

"Leak-Driven Law"

Diane M. Ring (Boston College Law School)
Discussants: Martin Hearson, Ian Roxan
and Parthasarathi Shome

4 December 2017

"Social Care: What Should We Do and How Should We Pay for It?"

Andrew Dilnot (Nuffield College, Oxford)

22 January 2018

Budget and Finance Bill Panel 2017-18

Panel: Carl Emmerson (IFS), Ian Young (ICAEW), Ian Roxan (LSE)

19 February 2018

"Contours of Tax Reform: Is Fundamental Tax Reform Possible in any Country?"

Partho Shome (ITRAF and LSE, formerly IMF, HMRC, etc.)

Special Event: 15 March 2018
17:00-19:00 – Room TW2.3.03, Tower Two (3rd Floor)

“The non-recognition and reconstruction of transactions in transfer pricing:
applying the presumption of legality to interpret domestic legislation”

Dr Amir Pichhadze (Deakin Law School, Melbourne)
Discussant: Dr Ian Roxan (LSE)

19 March 2018

“The next big explosion in tax – international arbitration and tax litigation”

Liesl Fichardt and Epaminontas Triantafilou (Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan, LLP)
Comment: Dr Jan Kleinheisterkamp (Department of Law, LSE)

30 April 2018

“Can We Incorporate Fairness into the Economic Analysis of Taxation?”

Professor François Maniquet (CORE, Université catholique de Louvain)

21 May 2018

“The Principal Purpose Test: One Ring to Bind Them All ?”

Professor Craig Elliffe (Director of the Master of Taxation Programme, Faculty of Law, University of Auckland)

4 June 2018

Topic TBC

Roderick Cordara, QC (Essex Court Chambers)

We gratefully acknowledge financial support from the LSE Law Department for these seminars. We look forward to seeing you. Please feel free to bring interested colleagues.