

Julian Le Grand has been a professor in several departments at the London School of Economics since 1993. He is currently a member of the LSE's Marshall Institute.

Julian was awarded a knighthood in the 2015 New Year's Honour's list for services to social sciences and public service.

He is an economist by training, with a Ph.D. in economics from the University of Pennsylvania. He is the author, co-author or editor of twenty books, and more than one hundred refereed journal articles and book chapters on economics, philosophy and public policy. He has taught at the Universities of Sussex, Bristol and California, as well as at the LSE.

He is a Fellow of the British Academy, a Founding Academician of the Academy of Social Sciences, and an Honorary Fellow of the Faculty of Public Health Medicine. In 2006 he was awarded an honorary doctorate (D.Litt) by the University of Sussex. In 2012 he was awarded the Eupolis prize for Public Policy by the Eupolis Institute, Milan, and his submission for the Wolfson Economics Prize received a 'special category' prize. In 2018, he was awarded an honorary doctorate by the University of Birmingham.

From 2003 to 2005 he was Department of Health's Franchise from 2001 the UK Cabinet Office's Mutuals TaskForce. In 2013 and 2014, he was the Chair of the Panels reviewing Doncaster's and Birmingham's Children's Services for the Department for Education and wrote the Panels' reports. As well as these positions, he has acted as an adviser to the President of the European Commission, the World Bank, the World Health Organisation, the OECD, HM Treasury, the UK Department of Work and Pensions and the BBC.

He is currently (2022) a Trustee and Deputy Chair of Think Ahead. He was a Trustee of the Kings Fund from 2007 to 2016. He has also been Vice-Chairman of a major teaching hospital, a Commissioner on the Commission for Health Improvement, and a non-executive director of several health authorities. He has served on many National Health Service working parties, on several think-tank commissions and on two grants boards for the Economic and Social Research Council.
